

Student Application

Iwasaki Sangyo Prize

Prize details

The Queensland Department of Education is proud to support the 2023 Iwasaki Sangyo Prize - an initiative to promote excellence in Japanese language studies in Queensland schools and reward the high achievement of Year 12 students studying Japanese.

Established in 1997, and now in its 26th year, the Iwasaki Sangyo Prize provides a positive incentive for Queensland students of Japanese in state and non-state schools to strive for excellence in their Japanese language studies.

The Prize is strongly supported by the Consulate General of Japan in Brisbane and is funded by generous contributions from Iwasaki Sangyo Corporation and the Department of Education, through its international arm, DE International to nurture the growth of Japanese language and cultural competence in young Queenslanders.

- The number of student prizes awarded in any one year depends on the donations received and the number and quality of the applications received from students.
- Recipients will receive return economy class airfares to Japan, travel insurance, accommodation, tuition fees, most meals and visa (if required).
- Students will travel unaccompanied to/from Japan in January - February 2024, but will be met in-country on arrival.
- Shortlisted students will be notified and required to attend a panel interview.

Eligibility requirements

Project consent form [PART B] Iwasaki Sangyo Prize

Dear Parent/Guardian/Student

Date

Introduction to the Project Consent Form (attached) for

Iwasaki Sangyo Prize

This letter is to inform you about how the Department of Education (department) will use, record and disclose your or your child's personal information and material. It outlines:

- what information we record; and
- where and how we will use the materials.

Examples of personal information, which may be used and disclosed (subject to consent), include part of a person's name, image/photograph, voice/video recording or year level.

Materials that are created by you or your child, whether as an individual or part of a team, may be replicated in full or modified for purpose. This includes copyright material, including written, artistic or musical works, video or sound recording created in connection with the project.

Personal information may include identifying each person who contributed to the creation. The material and personal information may also represent Indigenous knowledge or culture.

Purpose of the consent

This Project Consent Form relates to Iwasaki Sangyo Prize

The Iwasaki Sangyo Prize was established in 1997 to encourage, promote and recognise excellence in Japanese language studies for Year 12 students in Queensland schools.

Program places are awarded to high achieving Year 12 Japanese language students wanting to improve their language skills while enhancing their cultural understanding and awareness.

It is the department's usual practice to take photographs or record images and occasionally to publish limited personal information and materials for the purpose of promoting Queensland education.

To achieve this purpose the department may use newsletters, its website, traditional media, social media or other new media as listed in the 'Media Sources' section below. The department may also use images on a range of materials including (but not limited to) advertising, marketing materials, presentations and publications.

Because of this, the Project Consent Form provides consent for personal information and a licence for materials to be published online or in other public forums.

The department holds images in its Digital Asset Management Library and these may be used by the Queensland Government to promote a range of initiatives.

The department needs to receive consent in writing before it uses or discloses an individual's personal information or materials in a public forum. The attached form is a record of the consent provided.

Voluntary

It is your choice whether to give consent.

Consent may be withdrawn

Consent may be withdrawn at any time by you.

If you wish to withdraw consent please notify the departmental contact in writing (whether by email or letter). The department will confirm the receipt of your request if you provide an address.

The department will endeavour to take down content that is in its direct control; however, published information and materials cannot be deleted and the department is under no obligation to communicate changes to consent with other entities/ third parties.

Due to the nature of the internet and social media (which distributes and copies information), it may not be possible for all copies of information (including images and materials), to be deleted or restricted from use once published.

Media sources used

The department will publish images and materials on a range of social media, websites and traditional media sources subject to your consent. Please see the following webpage for a full list of sources where the project may be published.

<https://education.qld.gov.au/parents-and-carers/parent-participation/useimages-recordings>

Duration

The consent is ongoing unless you decide to withdraw your consent.

Who to contact

If you have any questions or wish to withdraw consent please contact internationalservices@qed.qld.gov.au.

Please retain this letter for your records and return the signed consent form.
